

Freight Agenda Day - Friday 11th September

Where is the future of freight heading...?

Overview

Freight Agenda Day will kick off with a stand-up breakfast with the Minister for Roads & Ports, Tim Pallas – come and meet the Minister and his advisers, and ask your questions face-to-face.

Freight Agenda will focus on the Victorian Government's transport and freight strategies, drawing together many of the themes from the Week, including people, technology, environment and safety, with the overlay of the Government's visions and proposed actions & initiatives.

Local Government will address the "last mile" issues and their role in infrastructure management, access approvals, local economic development and community amenity & safety.

Who should attend

CEOs, senior management, operations & fleet managers, OH&S managers, manufacturers, supply chain & logistics managers, purchasing managers, warehousing managers, compliance managers, equipment providers, technology vendors, consultants and regulators.
